Six Things You Need to Know to Get Rich in Real Estate - Vena Jones-Cox Mar 20, 2005 CCIA Speaker

Are you confused by the sheer volume of information available on real estate investing? After all, there are literally hundreds of strategies around for buying, financial, and selling properties, and thousands of opinions about what the “best” way is. Whether you attend seminars, surf the web, or even just take advantage of all the great info available at CCIA meetings, you’re probably overwhelmed by all the money-making opportunities available in real estate today.

At our March 20th meeting, super-successful investor Vena Jones-Cox will reveal the six simple skills every real estate investor must master to make it big in real estate. She’ll show you easy ways to learn these important skills, and give you great tips on how to choose the right investment for you, find amazing deals, buy properties using other people’s money, and much more! Do not miss this awesome event!

Vena Jones-Cox has been a full-time real estate investor since 1989. She focuses on high-profit, low-hassle strategies that leave her the time and freedom to enjoy financial independence. All told, she buys and sells about 50 properties per year.

Vena is a past president of the Real Estate Investor’s Association of Cincinnati, the Ohio Real Estate Investor’s Association, and the National Real Estate Investor’s Association. She hosts Real Life Real Estate Investing, a popular weekly public radio program, and has been featured in publications including The Cincinnati Enquirer, Smart Money Magazine, and Reader’s Digest in articles about successful real estate entrepreneurs.
